

LBL Training

Withdrawal/Cancellation Policy

A student who withdraws from the course at least 90 days prior, will be refunded any monies received less 50% of their deposit. Withdrawals after 90 days prior, but before 30 days prior, will be refunded monies paid, less their deposit.

No refund will be given after 30 days prior to the training; however, students for in-person trainings may have up to $2,000 of their course fee credited to a future course, and up to $1000 for online courses, if taken within two years. No refunds or credits will be provided once the course has commenced.

Should the course be cancelled by the Newton Institute, 100% of any monies received will be refunded. No compensation will be provided for expenses related to travel or other non-course costs. Travel cancellation insurance may be available to cover this possibility, we suggest you explore this option if this is a concern.
